Morning Lassitude

Women who waken in the morning feeling languid, faint, weak or dizzy, need a remedy that will strengthen the system, tone the nerves and improve the blood. Beecham's Pills have been a blessing to women for over sixty years. They have proved themselves a safe and dependable remedy for relieving and removing the peculiar ailments from which nearly every woman suffers. Whenever there is need-

Unknown Man Drops Dead in Boarding House-Frank R. Marshall Charged With Bigamy-Gave Name of Henry

An unidentified man died Wednesday in the boarding house of Paul Stace on Tolland avenue. Medical Examiner C. B. Newton went to the house and found the man lying on the floor. The body was taken to Baker's undertak-ing rooms, where the medical examiner gave the opinion that death was caused by heart disease. No paper or any-thing was found on his person to tell who he was or where he came from. He had come to Stace's Tuesday even-ing, got a room and retired. About 12 o'clock the next morning as he was sitting by the stove in the kitchen he toppled over and died. The man is about 45 years old, weighs about 150 pounds, is about 5 feet 5 inches in height.

The Westerly Light and Power com-pany filed on Thursday with the Rhode Island public utilities commission an answer to the complaint recently made by several residents of Westerly, including the members of the Westerly town council. The answer alleges that the complaint is not a proper one under the rules of the commission, that it is not the complaint of the town council, and that there are not 25 persons qualified to make complaint named in the document filed. The company denies that its rates are unjust and discriminatory as specified in the complaint. After the commission examines the complaint and the answer, decision will be reached as to whether, under the circumstance there shall be a public hearing.
